TILLMAN ON INDIANOLA

South Carolina Senator Delivers an Impassioned Speech in the Senate.

HARANGUES REPUBLICANS Opening Door of Hope to Negro Will Be Cause of Shutting It in Face of Some White Man.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The Indianola, Miss., postoffice case occupied the major portion of the time of the senate today. Tillman spoke for three hours in the continuation of his remarks begun yesterday on the race question and was followed by Carmack (Tenn.). The agricultural appropriation bill was also considered and the committee on amendments were agreed to accept the statehood rider, which was passed over.

The senate adjourned to meet tomorrow at 11 o'clock, which until other wise ordered will be the hour for convening hereafter. The ballot of the negro, Tillman maintained, was a menace to good government and the people of the north are coming to realize that the enfranchisement of him borders on crime. Reverting to the president's utterances that he was unwilling to shut the door of hope and opportunity in cases of a wholly competent colored man, Tillman said at first blush there is not a man alive who would not agree with that sentiment, but he inquired if it ever occurred to anyone that in opening that door of hope it might not be shutting it in the face of a white man. He regarded it as his duty to his state, he said, to stand for ever opposed to any idea of political or social equality on the part of the negro with the whites.

WILL ASK THAT THE RIDERS BE REMOVED

Washington, Feb. 24.—After the adjournment of the democratic caucus today the democratic members of the committee on postoffice met the republican members of the committee who have been friendly to statehood and decided to ask the chairman of the two committees on postoffice and agriculture to withdraw the statehood riders which the committees have placed on two appropriation bills. They also decided to continue the fight for the omnibus bill as it came from the house without an amendment, but not to antagonize appropriation bills or executive business with it.

"BLACK PEARL" BOBS UP

Negro Murderer Had the Distinction of Fighting Fits.

Enid, Okla., Feb. 24.—"Black Pearl," the negro who came near being lynched here last night for having killed Jim Jones, a Kansas negro, in a saloon quarrel, today in a confession alleged that he is the pugilist who fought Pitesimos in 1891, and who fled in 1896 after having killed a man in California in a street fight. The prisoner in abject fear of his life, stated in jail that after committing the California crime he went to Cuba in 1898, but returned to this country in 1900. He was supposed to have died on the Pacific coast. Two weeks ago "Black Pearl," who has been in the territory for some time, fought six rounds with a local man. All talk of lynching the man has subsided.

ATTACKS WAR SECRETARY

English Army Scheme Said to Be Humbug and Sham.

London, Feb. 24.—When the debate on Mr. Beckett's proposed amendment to the address in reply to the King's speech was resumed in the house of commons today the attack on War Secretary Brodick was continued. Winston Spencer Churchill, conservative, declared Mr Brodick's expectations had only been realized in but two directions namely, in the decrease in the number of volunteers and in the decrease of expenditures. There were, he said "fewer bayonets and sabres in the British army in proportion to the number of generals than any army in the world except the Venezuelan."

The speaker further declared that the whole army scheme was a "humbug and an object of militarizing England. He asked where the government expected the three army corps intended for foreign service to operate. It was not in South Africa and such a force was not needed on the Indian frontier. They certainly could not contemplate the three army corps operating in Canada, for the United States was "no more prepared to invade Canada than Great Britain was prepared to invade the United States." Mr. Churchill added amid cheers, "and long may that salutary neglect."

FAVORABLE TO IRELAND

Friction Existing Between Landlords and Tenants May Be Removed.

DUNRAVEN SPEAKS HOPEFULLY

King Edward, Public Men and Conference Report Are All in Harmony on the Question.

London, Feb. 24.—The Earl of Dunraven in an interview regarding the report of the Irish Landlord and Tenant conference in Dublin of which he was chairman, spoke hopefully regarding the prospects of legislation which he thought would end the differences in Ireland. Lord Dunraven said: "The utterances of King Edward and of British public men, the temper of Ireland, the reception of the conference's report by the public and the action of the government since the publication of the report are all favorable indications pointing to the success of the government's Irish Land bill, which if it contains a just and generous offer, will make good the first impression, on which all depends. The bill, if drawn on the lines of the terms of the report, will insure a final settlement and remove the cause of friction in Ireland, which is acting unfavorably, not only in Great Britain, but throughout the empire and on our kindred in the United States."

Lord Dunraven replied to the adverse criticism of the report, saying that the conference could not lay down a specific formula to be adopted. They were obliged to deal with the matter on the merits of the nation and those of the individual landlords and tenants. He did not think that the government would be able to specify a strict formula which, if attempted, would confuse the issue. The minor details of any plan based on voluntarism must be left to the purchasers and sellers. The conference only sought to formulate the conditions under which it would be possible to complete the transfer of the land within a reasonable period. His lordship concluded by saying that he did not think that the demand on the state treasury would be disproportionate to the benefits gained.

MURDERER IDENTIFIED

Aged Woman Knew the Man Who Killed Her Sister.

Toledo, O., Feb. 24.—"That's the man who split my sister's head open; that's the man who killed my sister. That's the man there," cried aged Johanna Sullivan in court today, when Al Wade was brought into the courtroom to be tried on the charge of murdering Kate Sullivan. The Sullivan murder has been the most profound mystery that the Toledo police have had to deal with in years. The crime was committed two years ago. The victims were aged spinster sisters. They were attacked in their home just outside the city limits and robbed, after Kate Sullivan had been brutally murdered. Johanna Sullivan escaped and crawled a mile for assistance, bleeding profusely with every move. The arrest of Wade on the charge of being implicated created a genuine surprise here. The alleged identification here today has created no little excitement.

NEGROES NOT ALLOWED

Whites Compel Darkies to Take Their Clothes and Go.

Indiana, Pa., Feb. 24.—Ten days ago Sterling Aiken, a negro, shot and wounded Weldon Thomas, a bookkeeper of Webrun. Aiken escaped, but the Webrun residents ordered all the negroes in the town—about 20—to leave the neighborhood. Failing to comply after repeated requests, the white residents yesterday attacked the negroes' shacks with ropes and poles and pulled them down. The negroes then took their belongings and boarded a freight train for Vintondale.
